

ZAG Becomes Nimble Storage Partner

San Jose, CA – October 15, 2012 – ZAG Technical Services, Inc. (ZAG) has announced that it is now a partner with Nimble Storage. Nimble Storage is the leading provider of flash-optimized, hybrid storage solutions.

Nimble Storage developed the first hybrid storage architecture engineered from the ground up to seamlessly integrate flash and high capacity drives. Customers enjoy as much as 10x faster application performance, enhanced backup and disaster recovery, and stress-free operations, all while lowering their TCO.

“Nimble Storage has solutions that integrate flash with high-capacity hard drive disks which make it ideal for applications such as Microsoft Exchange, SQL Server, server virtualization and VDI,” states Brian Jang, ZAG Senior Account Executive, “ZAG’s long history working on Microsoft products make us an ideal match for integrating Nimble into customer’s environments.”
