

Office 365 and Windows Intune Event a Success

San Jose, CA – May 24, 2012 ZAG Technical Services along with Microsoft hosted an Office 365 and Windows Intune in Mountain View, CA at the Microsoft Silicon Valley Campus on May 23, 2012.

The event was held in the Envisioning Center at the Microsoft Silicon Valley Campus. The first presenter was Justin Preston, Microsoft Solutions Architect, Justin presented on Microsoft in the Cloud and Office 365: Exchange and SharePoint. Justin was followed by David Bristow, Systems Engineer at ZAG who did a great demo on Lync with Justin to show all the features and different capabilities. The event ended with Albert Brown, Systems Engineer at ZAG, Albert gave an overview and did a demo of Intune.

This event was considered to be a great success from beginning to end. ZAG and Microsoft felt that everyone who attended gained some valuable information about what Office 365 and Windows Intune is and how it can help their company with their day to day IT needs.

ZAG looks forward to hosting more events like this one in the future and creating and retaining relationships with all those who attend.
